

Student Apartment Noble 2500 faces multiple move-in delays, resident frustration grows

Students who were planning to move into the Noble 2500 apartment complex in West Campus are growing frustrated following multiple delays to the building's construction, which was supposed to be completed at the start of the semester.

Attempted kidnapping in West Campus prompts calls for more safety measures

A woman who was believed to be a UT student escaped a kidnapping less than two weeks ago in West Campus. Student group "Safe Horns" is calling for more safety measures, including DPS trooper patrols and self defense workshops for students.

Students celebrate Día de los Muertos, create altars and gather for a sense of home

Día de los Muertos, or Day of the Dead, allows celebrators to honor loved ones who have passed. A traditionally Mexican holiday, students who celebrate but are away from home came together to create altars.

OUR TOP STORY

Political Action Groups Battle for Texas School Board Power Amid Fights Over Book Bans and Race

Battles over removal of LGBTQ-themed books from libraries and the teaching of race in Texas schools are moving to the ballot boxes in hotly contested school board elections.

"We ultimately have what I like to call a 'tyranny of the minority. The No. 1 factor is you've got to get people to vote. This whole 10 percent voter turnout is abysmal."

-Laney Hawes, mother of four children in the Keller school district

MORE OF OUR LATEST HEADLINES

Photo courtesy @UTAustin Tower

UT Tower becomes video game, showcases creativity and innovation

In a historic first for UT, students gathered to play 'Tower Tumble,' a video game designed to perfectly fit the tower. The game was a collaboration between students and professors at the School of Design and Creative Technologies.

Photo courtesy The New York Times

Houston Astros win second World Series title

The Houston Astros are once again on top of the baseball world after defeating the Philadelphia Phillies in six games to win their second World Series title. With a large population from the Houston metro, the game brought excitement to campus.

Photo courtesy UT Austin Sustainability

'Trash to Treasure' pop-up shop encourages sustainability

Student group 'Trash to Treasure,' a project under the UT Campus Environmental Center, recently hosted a pop-up shop outside the PCL where all clothing was just $1. Money from the sales funds sustainability projects on campus.

WHAT WE'RE WORKING ON

Keep a look out for Reporting Texas' future coverage on...

- Students look to attend Men's Basketball games at the Moody Center, were turned away due to a small student section
- ESPN College Gameday returns to UT Austin for a second time
- Takeaways from the midterm election and its affect on student political climate

Check out our website and our Facebook for the latest

