Inmates' Families March Alongside Those Wrongly Convicted at Death Penalty Protest

Families of death row prisoners joined opponents of capital punishment for the 23rd annual March to Abolish the Death Penalty at the Texas State Capitol on Saturday.

"I'm here today, tomorrow and as long as it takes until we end this death penalty. Not just bring Rodney home, but to abolish the death penalty because it is cruel, inhumane and pure racist."

-Rodrick Reed, brother of Rodney Reed, who has been on Texas' death row for 24 years
