8TH ANNUAL EGG ROLL

The grounds around the State Capitol looked a little different this weekend, all to help out some local kids and Austin's Rainbow Room.

UT'S 'TAKE BACK THE NIGHT'

Voices Against Violence hosted a resource fair to combat sexual harassment, sexual assault and stalking on campus.

GOLDEN WEEK FESTIVAL

UT's Japanese Association hosted a festival to celebrate a Japanese holiday.

"We never want to go with a time when a kid comes in and there's not an item that they're looking for, like if they need a certain size diaper and we don't have it.

We never want that to happen."

- Marcus Cantu, Partnerships for Children

LISTEN TO KARAN BRAR'S VISIT TO UT FOR INSPIRASIAN

Nearly 700 students gathered in the Shirley Bird Perry Ballroom to listen to actor Karan Brar talk about acting and mental health.

FORMER LONGHORN EXCELS IN PRO TENNIS

Peyton Stearns' court talent has only improved after leaving the 40 Acres. She said getting to play professionally has been a dream come true.

“Peyton is very powerful. She’s an excellent athlete. She has all the attributes and very few areas to exploit in terms of weaknesses.”

- Howard Joffe, UT Women's Tennis Coach
