UT ORGS HOST A QUINCEAÑERA

UT'S Mexican-American Culture Committee and two other student organizations hosted a Quinceañera on March 29 as an effort to build community amongst Latino students.

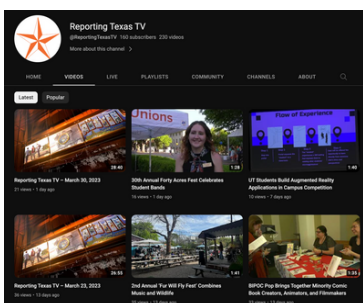

"Having a community here and being able to showcase your heritage through awesome events that you did throughout your youth, it's important and it's fun. You get to share it with other students who might have not experienced that growing up." - Staci Rende, MACC Advisor
