THIS WEEK'S NEWSCAST

Reporting Texas

NEWS AND FEATURES FROM UT-AUSTIN'S SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM AND MEDIA

OUR LATEST HEADLINES

RAMBLER APARTMENTS FACES FURTHER ISSUES

A mold problem in the Rambler Apartments forced over 100 student residents out of the building. Now, tenants are demanding answers on when they can return.

POP-UP CELEBRATES BLACK-MADE PRODUCTS

The All Black Made pop-up provided vendors with alternative selling opportunities featuring Black makers and creatives.

ESPORTS ARENA SPAWNS ONTO UT CAMPUS

The Alienware Longhorn Esports Arena opened earlier this month in the Texas Union. Find out how you can access the arena's 30 desktop computers and other features.

"I'm here to support the Black business owners that are here and thriving with their art."
-LaTasha Mitchell, Something Natural Hair Salon

Contact us:
Reporting Texas
300 West Dean Keaton St.
Austin, Texas 78712
512-471-1845

UT HONORS FREE SPEECH WEEK

The UT community celebrated Free Speech Week on campus, with one student winning a $500 prize in the Free Speech Minute video contest.

MOODY CELEBRATES 10TH ANNIVERSARY

The Moody College of Communication hosted festivities to honor the 10th anniversary of the college's naming. A petting zoo and snowcones were two of the attractions featured at the birthday bash.

ART EXHIBITION SHOWCASES WATER CONSERVATION EFFORTS

The City of Georgetown celebrated environmental education through art in the second annual South Main Arts Festival. Local artists painted rain barrels to bring awareness to sustainable watering practices.

"Kids are great sources. They're eager to learn of this stuff and they'll soak it up and take it home to encourage their parents to be mindful of water conservation."
-Tiffany Diaz, Regulatory & Conservation Manager at City of Georgetown.

WHAT WE'RE WORKING ON

Keep an eye out for Reporting Texas TV's coverage on...

- The More Than Pink Walk spreads awareness for breast cancer research.
- Westlake High School volleyball upsets Lake Travis.